

VERTU LATEST: ASCENT IN ORANGE AND SOLID RED

United Kingdom, August 2006 – The Ascent Collection is now also available in Orange and Solid Red at Selfridges. With the trademark fine quality leather, the new colours are a fresh update to the existing core range of black and brown.

Inspired by the design of performance sports cars, Vertu Ascent is individually hand-crafted in our workshop in the United Kingdom and meticulously tested: the striking leather on the phone is resistant to everything from lipstick to petrol stains. A black ceramic pillow and laser perforated keypad complete these stunning models.

This luxury phone is also equipped with technology such as Bluetooth, Modem support, PC synchronisation and storage for up to 1000 contacts and 900 calendar notes.

The new Ascent colours retails at £3,100 and are available in stores now.
