VERTU CONSTELLATION ROCOCO COLLECTION

April 2008 – The Vertu Constellation Rococo Collection will launch worldwide in the summer of 2008 during Vertu's Decade of Achievement.

These stylish handsets are inspired by the intricate design and handcrafted techniques of the Rococo period, which was developed by craftspeople and noted for its elegant, decorative arts.

Vertu has used pioneering techniques to embellish the classic Constellation handsets in the Rococo Collection. In a modern interpretation of the detailed ball gowns of this era of style, the leather back has been embroidered with coloured metallic threads to create a floral design, which brings to life the hallmark Vertu 'V'.

The four, new, stunning colours are: Noir, Scarlet, Ivory, which launch on the 1st of June, and the exclusive Rococo Sapphire, released on the 1st of August, which is adorned with natural blue Cabochon sapphires and the hand-polished bezel engraved with the intricate floral pattern.

Prices can be provided on request.
